Scoping Study for Participating in the Development of Cattle Ranches

1.Objectives:

1. With the objective of augmenting milk production and meat in the State and providing rich source of protein to its citizens for a healthy tomorrow, and at the same time provide sustainable livelihood to dedicated entrepreneurs, the Government of Meghalaya through the Directorate of Animal Husbandry & Veterinary intends to invest on Cattle Ranches on the basis of 60:25:15 (Loan:Govt.contribution:Own contribution) in different potential locations in the State preferably in International border.

2. The scheme has been formulated keeping in mind certain assumptions:
  - a) That for several years the Department has supported farmers in the form of subsidy whether in Dairy,Piggery, Goatery & Poultry Farming, yet the overall impact has not yielded much results which can be seen from the Livestock Census. The per capita availability of milk per person per day in the State is only 80 gm, whereas the National average is above 250 Gm. This indicates the low production and low consumption of milk. The import of beef meat during 2016-17 is over 13 thousand tonne [eqv=56%]
  - b) That even though farmers are now aware of the potential of rearing cattle for milk and/or meat purpose, yet the courage to venture into this activity in a larger scale is not there due to lack of financial resources, marketability etc.
  - c) That the white revolution which started in State like Gujarat has changed the economy of that State significantly, there is tremendous believe that the State of Meghalaya which has a congenial weather suitable for rearing of cattle should one day become the centre of potential for Cattle Factory/Industry.
  - d) That there is an immediate and urgent imperative now to motivate, encourage and attract enthusiastic entrepreneurs, individuals, party/group, clan and village durbar to take up Cattle ranches in a sustainable way.

3. The scheme has been formulated keeping the following objectives in mind:
  - a) To develop Cattle Ranch as an opportunity to an individual/party/group/clan/village dorbar who have sufficient land but remained unutilized and make it productive.
  - b) To encourage and increase stakeholder investment participation in the whole value chain and production process of Dairy.
  - c) To encourage and facilitate sustainable models of production.
  - d) To encourage and mobilize farmers' stakes as partners in the same process such that a sense of ownership is instilled amongst the farming community leading to better ownership responsibility and accelerating the adoption of technology, financial discipline and quality control culminating in improved and sustainable economic returns.
  - e) To develop and strengthen the risk taking ability of the farming community through a combination of technology, assured markets, credit linkages and institutional support.

- f) To enable the farming community to capture opportunities generated by the new climate of market oriented production and value chain approach.

With the intention of meeting the above aims and objectives the Directorate of Animal Husbandry & Veterinary, Government of Meghalaya intends to invite proposals from interested individual, party, group, clan, village durbar.
